FRA SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

NOTE: Scholarship awards may be used for scholastic, vocational/technical education. The total number of scholarship awards that any individual may receive is four (4).

General Requirements: Please read carefully – applications not meeting the full requirements below will be disqualified!

1. Applicant must be a Member (in good standing) of the Force Recon Association (FRA) or be a direct family member of the Sponsor.
2. Sponsor must be a Member (in good standing) of the Force Recon Association (FRA).
3. Both “Applicant” and “Sponsor/Guardian” MUST sign the” Attestations” block on page 5 or the application will be disqualified.
4. Parts III, IV, and V must be completed per the instructions. The applicant may choose to type/write these sections on separate pages. Also, you may submit a resume as supplemental information; however, the resume cannot be accepted as substitute information for Parts III through V.
5. Official and signed Transcripts are required FOR ALL INSTITUTIONS ATTENDED: NO EXCEPTIONS!! If applying directly from high school, please submit high school transcripts.
6. A copy of the institution’s acceptance/enrollment letter to the applicant must be provided. If there is any future change in institutions, a letter of acceptance will again be required as part of the application.
7. A minimum of three (3) letters of recommendation with original signatures of the authors must be submitted. One letter must be submitted by an instructor/professor and one letter may be submitted by the sponsor. Again, all recommendations must be signed by the author.
8. Please provide single sided copies of all documents and remove all staples since your application will have to be copied.
9. Selection for Force Recon Association Scholarships will be based upon a combination of academic achievement, letters of recommendation, demonstrated character, and the applicant’s personal statement.
10. The Force Recon Association’s elected Board of Directors makes the final Scholarship Award selections based upon the recommendations of the Force Recon Association Scholarship Committee.
11. Scholarship recipients will be notified via mail in the Fall of the award year.
12. Fully completed Application packages must be received by July 1st of the calendar year. Incomplete or late packages are automatically disqualified. DO NOT REQUEST signature receipts when mailing documents.
13. Previous scholarship recipients are eligible to reapply as long as all eligibility requirements and all application materials are resubmitted including all transcripts.
14. For consideration completed applications should be mailed to:
